

Apply for one of Helsingborg municipality's travel grants to Estonia or Croatia.

Helsingborg is a sister city to Pärnu in Estonia and Dubrovnik in Croatia. Every year students have the opportunity to apply for scholarships for a study trip to one of these places.

WHO CAN APPLY?

Students at Campus Helsingborg writing their thesis during the bachelor or master degree program. The scholarship will enable students to broaden their paper by collecting material or studying the subject matter from a perspective that had not been possible at home.

WHAT IS INCLUDED?

The scholarship will be used for travel and accommodation costs for a student or a smaller group during approximately one week of field studies. The sum is calculated on flights and accommodation for one week. The travel allowance for Pärnu is 8,000 SEK per student and to Dubrovnik 10,000 SEK per student.

WHEN IS IT GIVEN OUT?

The City Council's chairman will award the scholarships at Campus Vänner's breakfast meeting in the beginning of March.

HOW DO I APPLY?

Write an application for a maximum of two A4 pages and send it to emelie.esberg@helsingborg.se by 9th of February 2019. More information about what the application should contain and assessment criteria can be found on helsingborgsstudent.se. There you can also find examples of what could be studied at the respective resorts.
